Summer brings warmth—but for many in our community without stable housing, it also brings new challenges. With your continued support, we've made powerful strides this year toward our shared mission: "To assist families experiencing homelessness in Warren County, Ohio, to achieve sustainable independence through a community-based response". Thank you for your generosity and commitment. Every gift, every dollar, and every moment you've shared is helping to create real change.

Every person we house, every hot meal served, every life stabilized—it all starts with people like you. Your compassion makes our work possible and your partnership fuels our vision of a future without homelessness.

On Saturday, July 26th we hosted 48 children for Christmas in July. We had the opportunity based on your selflessness and support to provide our children school supplies, backpacks, clothes, shoes, haircuts and multiple items every child needs to be successful for the upcoming school year. Santa and Mrs. Claus put a smile on everyone's face.

This year Family Promise of Warren County (FPWC) has held two fundraisers in an effort to raise additional dollars to support more families experiencing homelessness. We hosted our very first Golf Fore Home event on May 19th. One hundred and thirty-three golfers took to Heatherwoode Golf Course in Springboro. It was a spectacular event and we hope to add it as an annual event in 2026.

Our next fundraiser will be held on October 5th at Manor House in Mason, Ohio. We will host the Tailgate for Home starting at 3:30 p.m. It will be a fun event to raise dollars for FPWC and cheer on our Bengals as they face the Detroit Lions. Please check out our website to sign-up as a Sponsor, get a ticket, and make plans to bid on some wonderful raffle baskets.

Together, we are turning crisis into opportunity to support our Warren County families experiencing homelessness. We greatly appreciate every volunteer, congregation, business, staff and Board member. Thank you for walking alongside us.

Linda's Letter

by Linda Rabolt
FPWC Executive Director

Sometimes all it takes is a pair of shoes....

Let me explain. As you are aware, Family Promise of Warren County (FPWC) has had the pleasure for almost 27 years to provide a program of accountability and responsibility as we work with families every day to achieve sustainable independence, self-sufficiency and housing through a community-based response. This is inclusive of an individualized case plan and daily case manager visits that recognize the specific and individual needs of each family.

We are currently blessed to work with families with a total of 14 children here in shelter. In our eyes, it is heartbreaking to see the challenges these children face. They are happy children. They love our playground. They love riding bikes and using sidewalk chalk with our volunteers. They enjoy meals such as spaghetti, grilled cheese, and hot dogs! Ice cream for dessert brings laughter and giggles. Our volunteers are loving and attentive and, like most of us grandparents, the volunteers are exhausted when they go home; but know that they have positively impacted a child.

These children come to us with tattered clothing, sometime mismatched and often too big or too small. No socks, and shoes with ties that are too long or too short and all too many times with holes in them or so used that they are filthy.

We recently took these children to a local "free store" so that they could shop with mom for their basic needs. Oh, I wish you could have seen the smiles when they arrived for dinner that night in their "new" clothing, feeling so good.

But sometimes it is all about shoes. We were blessed with a couple of gift cards to Kohls and decided to use them for shoes for these children. Our staff packed the children up in our van and off they went to Kohls in their battered shoes and wearing new socks from our Coats for a Cause closet.

Two hours later, as these children came off the van, I immediately noticed a change. We had happy and smiling children. They had never been to Kohls and never had brand new shoes. Haley

Vision:

"A county where every family has a home, a livelihood and a future full of promise."

Many thanks to Officer Massey of the Lebanon Police Department for spending time with the families at Family Promise of Warren County.

The children learned safety tips, had fun in the squad car, and more importantly developed a positive relationship with the police.

Mission:

got purple, shimmering, light up shoes. Paula, the oldest of the children, had very teenage shoes and Harlin, our 10-year-old boy, proudly showed me his Nikes which provided support to his ankles as he has cerebral palsy.

I teased Harlin about how big his feet were and how great these shoes were. His smile said it all. He told me that he felt much taller! At dinner that night, the children were so excited to show the volunteers their new shoes. There was a change in them. A positive change. A change in their attitudes.

Sometimes, all it takes is a pair of shoes....and the love and interest of strangers that provide the basic needs that we all take for granted.

Matthew 25: 35-36 shares "For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me in. I needed clothes and you clothed me. I was sick and you looked after me. I was in prison, and you came to visit me."

As a volunteer and supporter of FPWC, you follow Matthew 25. I see it every day with volunteers from congregations, business, clubs, schools and more who come to the FPWC campus with food, and smiles, and encouragement, and time and love. I see the hugs that our kiddos receive and give. I see the pats on the back for our parents and the kind words that mean more than you will ever know. I see it as a volunteer holds a child or teaches a child to ride their bike or beams when a child understands a homework concept. I see it at our fundraisers. Sure, we have fun with golf and participating in our 5K, but the bigger excitement is knowing that those funds are going to a great cause. They help us to provide a homelike atmosphere, running water, electricity, computers, professional staff, and a plan for the journey ahead as our families work to finally have a home.

The Tailgate for Home will be held on October 5 at the Manor House. This is the final fundraising event for 2025. Your sponsorship and your attendance is critical as FPWC continues to endeavor to assure children like Haley, Paula and Harlin have the opportunity for a future full of promise, the love of strangers and maybe even a pair of shoes.

As always, know you are appreciated and indeed you make a difference!

Stories of Promise

by Patrick Lovely Graduated Client

I didn't know what to do or where to start. I went from having somebody to help with my children and didn't need as much assistance because I could work and work as much as I needed. Then that was just gone. I didn't have much support and didn't know where to start. When we lost our housing, I tried to stay in hotels but couldn't keep up with the cost as I no longer had childcare and couldn't keep a job. I tried to stay with family but could never stay long. I was at a loss. I knew I had to do something for myself and especially my three children. Then my sister-in-law recommended I call IHNWC (now FPWC). She shared with me that she had heard good things about FPWC so I called. And I'm so grateful that I did.

FPWC made it possible to have support. The case management with Nichole was great. It made things easier to accomplish the goals I needed to be as successful as I could be. The rest was up to me but having the steps, the tools and all the guidance was so helpful. I was able to get childcare, food stamps, employment, and housing. The support from the church volunteers was unforgettable. Many watched the children to give us parents in the program a break, we had dessert every night and just being able to talk to the volunteers meant so much. LifeHouse was our favorite church because they did haircuts and family pictures.

Initially after shelter we were living in a unit getting help from a temporary housing program which FPWC connected us to. FPWC later helped us move into a unit with a permanent housing program. We have been in that unit for four years now. It hasn't always been easy but the continued support we receive from FPWC keeps us going. I'm proud to say I work full-time and have been at my current job for two years. During that time, I've been promoted to a lead with the company, and I aspire to be the COO of the company someday. I started schooling for a Bachelors in Operations Management in June 2025. Having that degree will help me further my career. I honestly can say I wouldn't be where I am today without the help, support and generosity of all involved with FPWC.

Thank you from 3 year old Lena

"Words can't express how thankful we are for everyone who contributed to Christmas in July for us. We are so thankful and grateful for everyone and everything. The kids LOVED the crafts and activities. The food was amazing as well. Thank you again!"

COHHIO News Clips

Full-time workers need to earn at least $22.51/hour just to afford a modest two-bedroom apartment in Ohio, according to a report jointly released by the National Low Income Housing Coalition and the Coalition on Homelessness and Housing in Ohio.

The 2025 Out of Reach report shows that the disparity between renters' income and the cost of rent in Ohio has more than doubled since the beginning of the pandemic in 2020. The average Ohio renter now earns $18.62/hour, or $3.89/hour less than the 2-bedroom Housing Wage. In 2020, the difference was $1.57/hour, a gap that has increased 148% in five years.

The Housing Wage is an estimate of the hourly wage full-time workers must earn to afford a rental home at HUD's Fair Market Rent without spending more than 30% of their incomes.

The report also found that only 4 out of the 15 most common jobs in the Buckeye State pay more than the 2025 Housing Wage. That means nearly 1.2 million jobs – 21% of all the jobs in Ohio – don't pay enough to afford a basic two-bedroom apartment.

"Thank you so much for today. We had the best time seeing Santa and Mrs. Claus. We enjoyed a delicious meal and we were able to see old friends. What you are doing for these families is truly a blessing. Thank you for everything. What an amazing gift you have given us. We will pray for blessings for you all! May God's favor be upon you."

-The Cranfill Crew

1. What do you usually do to volunteer for FPWC? Which is your favorite?

I have volunteered for FPWC in two ways. I have built outdoor chairs for the families rooms and assisted at the 5K fundraiser. I preferred building the chairs for them because it had a more direct impact and benefit to the families.

2. How did you first get involved in FPWC?

I first got involved with FPWC through my Eagle Scout project. I learned a lot about them and the great work that they do for those in need in our community.

3. What is your "why" for volunteering?

My why for getting involved was I wanted to make a positive change in my community, especially for those who were in the greatest need of it. Also Linda and the staff at FPWC inspired me with their dedication to the organization's aim of uplifting poor families.

4. What is a memorable moment about your work with us?

One moment was Linda had shared with me that she had found one of the kids sleeping in the chairs that I had built and that really brought me joy to know that I had given the families there some comfort.

5. What would you tell new members/volunteers about volunteering for FPWC?

There are many ways you can volunteer and their hours are flexible.

6. Tell us a fun fact about yourself!

One fun fact about myself is that I have a black lab and her name is Ella!

Staff Spotlight

GETTING TO KNOW

LILY KNALEY

Summer Intern

1. How long have you been a member of the staff of FPWC? What is your position? Tell us a little about what you do and your educational background.

I just started at FPWC as an intern in May. In this role I do a little bit of everything. I work with individuals trying to find shelter and help provide people with the proper resources. I went to Bowling Green State University for my bachelor's degree in Human Development and Family Studies. I started pursuing my master's degree in Social Work from the University of Cincinnati in August.

2. What do you enjoy most about being on the FPWC staff?

The people are my favorite part of being on the FPWC staff. I knew I was going to be the youngest member of the staff which was intimidating coming in. I had no reason to worry because every person here has welcomed me and treated me with so much kindness. I have never been a part of a staff that has this much fun with each other.

3. What do you love most about your current position?

I love how everyday is different. Some days I help with answering phones and other days I'm tagging along to home visits. I feel that through my different experiences I learn something new everyday. I think the variety of the work I do has given me valuable knowledge and experience I will continue to build upon.

4. Tell us a little about your family.

I am very close with my family. My dad works as a computer programmer and my mom is a social worker. I have a younger sister who is still in high school. She dances, swims, and plays volleyball. I have been with my boyfriend Luke for 4.5 years. He is a senior at the University of Findlay and will graduate with a degree in Finance next May. My family and I bond over our love for movies and have movie nights frequently. Luke and I love to hike and golf together.

5. What's something about you (a fun fact) that not many people know?

A fun fact about me is that I am an avid reader. I read on average 100 books a year. Although I read a wide range of books, my favorites will always be the Harry Potter series.

Gratitude and Growth: A Thank You from the Host Recruitment Committee

As summer draws to a close and the days start to get a little shorter, the Host Recruitment Committee at Family Promise of Warren County (FPWC) would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to every individual and organization who has generously given their time, energy, and compassion so far this year. Because of you, families facing homelessness have found not just shelter, but dignity, support, and hope.

Whether you've prepared meals, hosted evening activities, stayed overnight, or simply taken the time to listen — your presence has made a real and lasting impact. Thank you for being part of the FPWC mission.

If you haven't yet had the chance to get involved, we warmly invite you to join us for the final Evening with Family Promise of the year on Tuesday, October 21, 2025, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. at our Day Center. This relaxed and welcoming event will include snacks and beverages, guided tours of the facility, and opportunities to meet and chat with board members and committee leaders. It's the perfect way to learn more about who we are, what we do, and how you can be a part of it.

As we look ahead, we are excited to continue building a second network of congregations, businesses, community groups, and service organizations to help host meals and evening programming for families in shelter every day. Expanding this network is critical to our mission — enabling us to serve more families, more consistently, and with more comprehensive support.

We hope to see you on October 21st — and thank you, from the bottom of our hearts, for helping us walk alongside families as they work toward safe, stable housing and a brighter future.

Our families enjoyed a nice summer morning and harvested vegetables from our Storybook Garden Path. They were able to learn about different types of plants and how to tell when each one was ready to be picked!

"Thank you so much for everything you have done for us. We greatly appreciate everything. You helped us turn a very tragic time in our life into a learning experience."

Coordinator Corner

Notre Dame Club

The Notre Dame (ND) Club of Cincinnati has been blessed with a new adventure this year, working with Family Promise of Warren County (FPWC), helping us put our faith into action. Our ND Club consists of alumni, parents, and friends from the Tri-State region of Greater Cincinnati.

Our mission is for our members to strengthen bonds to Notre Dame and each other; help us to thrive in faith, service, learning, and work; and inspire us to act as forces for good in our communities and the world. With over 800 active members in the tri-state area, our club has always had a strong call to serve, averaging 30 or more volunteer events a year. So, it was no surprise that our new partnership with FPWC would be a natural fit.

Starting with the first week of January, our club has now completed three of the four hosting weeks we signed up for this year. Getting into a rhythm now, we have some members who supply the food for the weekly groceries, other members who make and serve the nightly dinners, and others who stay the evening for the overnight shifts. We find most often our volunteers who make and serve the meals also like to stay for the after-dinner fellowship with the families. Eating and relaxing with these families has by far been the best part of our experience.

We've had tons of fun decorating cookies (for both Christmas and Easter), playing crazy games of UNO, building paper airplanes, flying kites, swinging on the swings, blowing bubbles, running through the sprinkler, and having quiet time in the playroom or watching a movie. Being able to spend quality time with these families and bring joy into their day and ours, I believe has been a true blessing to all of us.

As the community service leader for our club, I'm so glad FPWC found us and reached out. Of this entire experience, what I'm most grateful for is the way FPWC and the work they are doing for these families truly inspires our volunteers. Even though we have a wide variety of volunteers: college kids, families with high-schoolers, empty-nesters, and grandparents, they all love serving here and keep coming back week after week. They also keep bringing in more family and friends each time they serve. That is what I'm most excited about. Spreading this love and showing more and more people how fulfilling giving back to your community can be. FPWC, thank you for this opportunity, and we look forward to seeing you again in the fall.

Storybook Garden Path

by Linda Rabolt
FPWC Executive Director

Shortly after the purchase of our current location, Doug Pendry shared with then Board VP Tom Ludeke that he had a vision for the front portion of the property. While away on vacation Doug had visited a beautifully landscaped walking path and thought this was something that should be considered.

Doug's vision was embraced by other stakeholders and evolved into a place where the children in shelter, along with their parents and volunteers could be outside, walk the path, and read a story. This would be a serene place outside the chaos that homelessness brings. A place where children could be in nature and away from video screens. A place where they can harvest tomatoes, onions and pumpkins and a place where children can learn.

For the last two years FPWC has been blessed with volunteers from many places to make this vision a reality. The Master Gardener volunteers from OSU extension have been wonderful partners as we strive to achieve Doug's vision. Other gardeners soon joined the cause from Town and Country Gardeners Club, Crossroads Church, Summitt Church, and Gathering Church. These folks have constructed planter boxes and beds and have adopted planters so we now have not only beautiful flowers but an abundance of homegrown veggies.

Groups from a variety of organizations including LCNB, United Way, Gathering Church and others have spent time weeding our various beds. All so that we can provide this beautiful space of dignity for our families and the wonderful community of Lebanon in which we reside.

Our path is now becoming a reality! Through generous donations we were able to construct the 500-foot-long crushed limestone walking path. The children are already so excited to ride their bikes and walk this path. To be out in the fresh air and to learn about their surroundings.

Our storybook display pedestals are also becoming a reality! Soon the children will be able to read our first book, "The Little Engine That Could." What an inspiring story for our families to read as the Little Blue Engine saves the day, saying "I think I can!" along the way.

Sadly, our great friend and dedicated volunteer Doug Pendry passed away on July 11. We are forever grateful for that day when Doug shared his vision. A vision that for years to come will make an impact on all who walk the path, enjoy the scent of the flowers, and are inspired by the simple but impactful books that all can read.

Thank you to all who are making our Storybook Garden Path a reality. As the project continues to progress, we need more volunteer help to keep it going. If you would like to join our team, pull some weeds or have ideas for books, please reach out to Linda Rabolt or Tom Ludeke at FPWC.

Christmas In July

by Linda Rabolt
FPWC Executive Director

The start of the school year is a jubilant time for students and parents alike. The children are excited to once again be with friends and get involved with sports and activities. The parents are just as excited as they have a sigh of relief to once again be in a routine.

For families who struggle, the start of the school year is a difficult time. The school supply lists come out and many times parents simply cannot afford to purchase the items on the list, forcing the children to start the school year without the requisite items.

The children often don't have jackets that fit or any of those crisp new clothing items that all the other children have. These children of little means stand out the minute they get on the school bus and enter the classroom. And sadly, they know it. They often get made fun of or even worse, don't want to go to school.

Christmas in July is designed to eliminate this issue. Under the heart felt guidance of Jennifer Keezer, chair, and her many elves, every child who was in the Family Promise of Warren County program over the past 12 months is gifted with all that they need to begin the school year successfully.

The children have a new jacket, 5 new outfits, a haircut, a brand-new pair of shoes, socks, underclothing and yes, a backpack full of all of the items on their specific teacher's supply list.

The event is held on the last Saturday of July. This year it was at King of Kings Lutheran Church in Mason. We are so appreciative of the kind folks at King of Kings who offered their gym for this event.

Volunteers from various organizations shop for each child as if they were their own. The volunteers set up the event space with a Christmas theme. Special Christmas crafts are offered. There is face painting and a candy shoppe. Dinner is Bob Evans turkey dinner and then jingle bells are heard as Santa and Mrs. Clause arrive (aka Paul and Pam Ford of Christmas in Springboro fame) to the excitement of all.

Santa spends time with each child and encourages them to have a good school year. To always do their best. To be kind and to strive to be a leader.

Christmas in July is funded by the Warren County Foundation, The Mason Kiwanis, Time for Change, Kohls of South Lebanon, individuals, congregations and more. We are ever grateful for the support of our funders as well as our many volunteers who understand the importance of the need for children to have the opportunity to feel good about going to school. For in doing so, they have the opportunity to change the course of their lives.

Fundraising Update

by Monica Widdig
FPWC Board Treasurer

Early in 2025, it was evident that to survive and to thrive, Family Promise of Warren County (FPWC) would need to step-up our fundraising efforts. We had been in our new facility for a year, and we could now assess our actual costs versus our estimated costs. It was determined that in all our fundraising efforts we must raise a total of $100,000.00 in 2025.

Being in our new facility comes with additional financial responsibilities. While FPWC has always paid for utilities, our utility bills have increased with the larger facility. There was the need for additional staffing. Furthermore, we now have a mortgage. Being in an older building comes with additional challenges. There are repairs, maintenance, groundskeeping, snow removal, and capital improvement. And with all of this we are grateful for the opportunity to be in this new facility which will bring hope to many families for years to come.

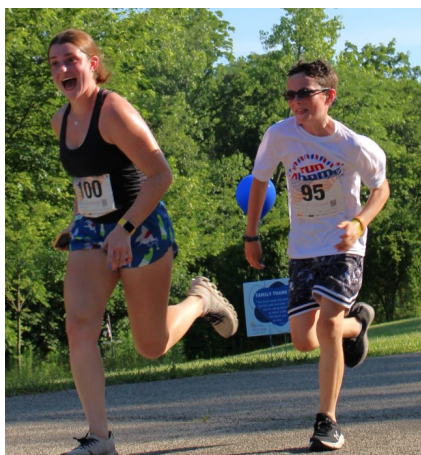

It was determined by the FPWC Board of Directors that we would organize and hold three major fundraising events in 2025.

The first, Golf Fore Home, was held on May 19th at the Heatherwoode Golf Club. This event was attended by 133 golfers. The event was sponsored by Heather's Light Foundation, Festo, Gathering Church, Summit United Methodist Church, and many others that supported golf carts and holes. We were so grateful for the support! We had a beautiful day and in all raised a total of $27,618. We hope you can join us in 2026!

The second event was the 19th annual Run4Home 5K and Kid's Fun Run held on July 4th at Armco Park. With a total of 369 participants this event raised a total of $16,669.94. We are looking forward to our 20th annual Run4Home in 2026!

The final fundraising event will be Tailgate for Home. This will be held Sunday, October 5th at the Manor House in Mason from 3:30p to 7:30p. We want this to be a fun and high energy event with the dress code being jeans and your favorite team's shirt. Tailgate food will be served such as chicken wings, sliders, cheese coney, and meatballs. The Bengals vs Detroit Lions will be on the big screens. There will be raffles, silent auction, a wine pull, bourbon pull, football throw, a cornhole tournament and more! See further details in this newsletter, on our website, or scan the QR code to the right.

FPWC is well on our way to achieving our 2025 financial goals. Being good stewards of all funds continues to be a priority for FPWC as it has for the last 27 years. Thank you for your continued support!
